

See page 2
for ideas on how to create your own exhibition

Curator at the Zuccaire Gallery

Ever wonder who decides what artwork is displayed in an art gallery or museum?

A Curator is an expert on art who puts together a collection of artwork to be displayed—also known as an exhibition. Curators come up with an idea for an exhibition, research and select the artworks, arrange the artworks in the gallery, and decide what they are going to say about it.

Curate your own exhibition at the Zuccaire Gallery!

What will the title of your exhibition be?

Who do you want to visit your gallery?

What do you want people to know about the artwork?

Choosing Artwork

Artists use all types of materials—also known as media—to make their art.

Some artists paint, color, or sketch.
Some make sculptures out of metal, clay, or found objects.

Some artists make prints or photographs, and others create videos.

What types of artwork will you put in the Zuccaire Gallery?

Draw your own artwork in the gallery, or color and cut out pieces of artwork to paste on the Zuccaire Gallery page.

