

GLI 212.32: Issues in Globalization Studies and International Relations

The Politics of Globalization: Historical and Policy Perspectives

Winter 2025

Instructor: Azka Saqib

3 Credits: GLO, HUM

No Prerequisites

Online Asynchronous

January 7-24

TOPICS COVERED

- Historical Foundations of Globalization
- Political Economy and Global Organizations
- Cultural Identity and Globalization
- Migration, Health, Environment, and Policy
- Technology, Inequality, and the Future of Globalization

GLI majors and minors can apply this class to any one of the following:

- Global Interaction Areas: Middle East: North Africa and Southwest Asia
- Global Issues Tracks: Transnational Corporations and Transregional Institutions: Markets, Institutions, and Policies