

The Zuccaire Gallery showcases “Traces: MFA Thesis Exhibition 2025”: Gallery

Christopher Yang

March 18, 2025

Stony Brook University’s Paul W. Zuccaire Gallery is showcasing graduating Master of Fine Arts students’ work from March 4 through April 12. The exhibition titled “Traces” features work from MFA students such as Diana Salomon, Hagar Masoud and Ria Rajan. The art in this showcase is a reflection of everything the students have encountered during their time in the MFA program. The themes explored are identity, history, trauma and transformation. Check out the exhibit here:

Gallery • 14 Photos

A person observing Hagar Masoud's "Beyond the Silence" piece at the MFA Thesis Exhibition on Wednesday, March 12.
CHRISTOPHER YANG/THE STATESMAN